

NV – Disclosure of Service Details and Costs

Each utility shall make available to each of its customers, upon request, information describing the services it provides and specifying the rates and charges for those services.